

Read Me

AI-Powered Indoor Obstacle Avoidance is the project which is used for detecting an object inside the room and avoid the object.

In this project we are using mainly Python with libraries, pygame and visual studio.

We use painting tool for designing the room and robot. And for avoiding the object we use graphical mapping also.